

LEGACY GIVING THROUGH YOUR WILL, TRUST, LIFE INSURANCE OR REAL ESTATE

Remember the Bainbridge Island Parks & Trails Foundation in your will or trust to make a difference for generations to come. A legacy gift makes an enduring contribution to our community and serves as an inspiration to others, while continuing to further your personal story, values and vision.

How it works

Most legacy gifts require no immediate donation, with transfers taking place after your lifetime. You can always change your mind during your lifetime, and a gift in any amount is welcome. If you are considering including Parks & Trails Foundation in your will, please contact anne@bainbridgeparksfoundation.org

To name Bainbridge Island Parks and Trails Foundation in your will, here is sample language you can use:

"I give Bainbridge Island Parks & Trails Foundation, a 501(c)3 nonprofit legally incorporated in Washington State and located on Bainbridge Island, WA, the sum of $ _____ (or ___% of my residuary estate) for general operating purposes" (or to a specific designation in keeping with our mission. Our tax identification number is: 91-1855049.

Gifts of Life Insurance

Life insurance policies pay upon the death of the insured to a named beneficiary, including charitable organizations. You can name Bainbridge Island Parks & Trails Foundation as the beneficiary of a policy insuring your life, or transfer ownership of a fully paid policy.

Gifts of Real Estate

You can also gift land to Bainbridge Island Parks & Trails Foundation, either to use for public parks and trails or to be sold to further the Foundation's mission. You can do this in your lifetime or through your will, or gift property while retaining the right to live on it during your lifetime.

Questions? Please contact Anne Morgan, Development Director anne@biparksfoundation.org, (206) 842-4971